PRESS RELEASE

Her Excellency Ambassador Sarmila Parajuli Dhakal had a meeting with His Excellency Qais bin Mohammed Al-Yousef, Chairman of the Oman Chamber of Commerce and Industries (OCCI) of the sultanate of Oman on 20 October 2019 at latter's office. The meeting was conducted in utmost cordial and friendly environment.

During the meeting Excellencies discussed about the B2B meeting proposed by the embassy of Nepal in Oman. The meeting is targeted at promoting Nepali products in Oman engaging business people directly. H E Ambassador Dhakal thanked HE Qais for his valuable time and all the support extended to promote Nepali business in Oman and vice versa. H E Qais also suggested modalities of the B2B meeting and shared his experience of such meetings. B2B meeting between Nepal and Oman is expected to be in February 2020 in line with Nepal Government's objective to promote exports and trade. Qualified interested Nepali exporters will be invited through Concerned Governmental Agencies of Nepal to participate in the meeting.

Mr. Abdul Adham bin Abbas Bahrani, CEO of the OCCI was also present during the meeting.
